

- United States Public Health Service Commissioned Corps
- Branches Supported by Other Service Branches' Medical Corps
- Civilian Nurses in Military Healthcare Facilities
-

Benefits of military nursing:

- 1.increase training opportunity for nurses in military sectors.
2. Benefits of a Military Nursing Career or job
3. resolve problems of Challenges to Military Nursing
- 4.medical support in war places
5. Establishing Mobile Medical Units or providing care in emergency.
- 6.health services for soldiers and their families.
-

Benefits of school nursing in military services:

1. school nursing aims are to develop levels of military nurses.
2. Teachers and workers in school administration must have academic certification for application program.
3. It should be available with military policy and objectives,
4. The program should be included physical fitness and military training.
5. There should be standard requirements for new students that enter the school.

6.the military school wants to graduate high quality of nurses who ready to deal with war issues in emergency medicine.

7..The committee of teachers and administration members should be obligated to military orders and also academic and scientific points in the curriculum of school nursing in military sectors.

.....

References:

1.Avialable at <http://www.nln.org/docs/default-source/professional-development-programs/nursing-leaders-in-military.pdf?sfvrsn=0> accessed in 24-12-2020

2.Jenny James, at interview in Canberra on March 2008, gave significant letters from Doug Tracey, and her own lecture notes on the subject of work in Vung Tau. 27 Jenny Hunter’s email to Jan Twomey, 14 September 2011. 28 Mair Jones interview with Jan Twomey on 15 October 2008 at Royal Prince Alfred Hospital, Sydney, p. 2. 29 Jan Bell interview with Jan Twomey on 15 September 2005 at Concord General Hospital, p. 5

INDIAN ARMY

B.Sc. (NURSING) ENTRANCE
EXAM